Jessica Conroy
PhD, LMHC, MCAP

"Our primary purpose is to provide a safe, non-judgmental forum in order to reduce resistance where cognitive behavioral interventions, reviews, and appropriate behaviors can be implemented; to raise a coordinated community response toward prevention of relapse and/or recidivism; and to nurture solutions encompassed within the constructs of Choices, Chances, Changes programs. Facilitators will continue to learn and remain ever-educable in the field of mental health and substance abuse and the process of helping clients to extinguish old patterns by implementing new, appropriate skills. Victim empathy and safety will be fostered as well as change encouraged."
